

Maryland Business Recovery Workshop

For businesses damaged during the protests

Murphy Fine Arts Center
Morgan State University
Baltimore, MD 21251

Friday June 5, 2015
9 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Why Attend? Hear from the Small Business Administration, Baltimore Development Corporation, and other State agencies that can help you access available financial resources including:

- Physical damage loans up to $2 million: real estate, machinery, equipment, furniture, fixtures, etc.
- Economic injury loans up to $2 million: accounts payables, rental expenses, fixed debts, working capital needs, etc.
- Renters and Homeowners loans up to $200,000.
- Zero or low interest loans available from 5 to 30 years, flexible terms.

Roger A. Campos
Governor's Business Ombudsman
Moderator

Alana Chavez
Small Business Administration
Federal Disaster Loans up to $2 million

Joy Hatchette
Maryland Insurance Commission
Help for insured and uninsured businesses

Les Hall
Department Business & Economic Development
Business Loans

Darryl Massey
Maryland Lottery & Gaming Control Agency
Help with lost or stolen lottery tickets

Cheivelle Hill
Department Housing Community Development
$35K loans/grants, up to $500K

Mark Williams
Small Business Administration Baltimore District Office
Newly Announced Loans

Jeff Trice
Department Labor Licensing & Regulation
Lost Wages and Unemployment

Kerry DeVilbiss
Baltimore Development Corporation
$35K loans/grants

There will be other financial service providers attending such as non-profits, banks, and private organizations offering assistance for damaged physical property, loss of inventory, revenue, and economic adjustment.

Please be on time for the presentations. Afterwards, you will have an opportunity to meet one on one to apply, seek more information or receive an appointment to follow-up with your loan/grant application.
To attend, please RSVP to Brian.Paxton@maryland.gov, phone 410 260-6116.

THIS IS A FREE PUBLIC SERVICE EVENT hosted by Governor Larry Hogan