

AGENDA

Maryland Insurance Administration Property and Casualty Industry Meeting

May 14, 2018

10:00 AM

200 St. Paul Place, Baltimore, MD, 21202

22nd Floor Francis Scott Key Room

Conf. Call #: 1-866-247-6034

Code: 1573490062

1. Welcome: Al Redmer, Insurance Commissioner
2. Steps MIA has taken to prepare since last hurricane season – Joy Hatchette, Associate Commissioner for Consumer Education & Advocacy (CEAU)
3. What the MIA does before, during and after a disaster – Joy Hatchette, Associate Commissioner for CEAU
4. Question for companies – Anything you have done to prepare for the upcoming hurricane season? – Robert Baron, Associate Commissioner for Property & Casualty
5. Severe event data collection template – Dawna Kokosinski, Acting Chief of Market Analysis
6. Bulletins that might be issued in the event of a disaster – Joy Hatchette, Associate Commissioner for CEAU
7. Procedure for moratoriums – Ronald Coleman, Director of Rates & Forms for P&C
8. Percentage Deductibles – Robert Baron, Associate Commissioner for P&C
9. Complaint handling during a disaster – Mary Jo Rogers, Supervisor, CEAU
10. What can the MIA do to assist the carriers help their policyholders? – Joy Hatchette, Associate Commissioner for CEAU
11. What the MIA needs from Carriers so that we can assist policyholders. – Robert Baron, Associate Commissioner for P&C
12. Any other items.