

QUESTION:

I am scheduled to appear at a hearing at the Maryland Insurance Administration. Should I appear as scheduled for my hearing?

ANSWER:

Due to the outbreak of the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) and to ensure the safety of all parties scheduled for hearings, the Maryland Insurance Administration has currently postponed hearings occurring on or before April 1, 2020. See link to Order postponing hearings at: <https://insurance.maryland.gov/Documents/newscenter/MIA-Order-Postponing-Hearings-due-to-COVID-19.pdf>. The hearing and appeals clerk will contact counsel (if the parties are represented) or the parties directly to reschedule hearings.

If you are scheduled for a hearing after April 1, 2020, please check back on this page for the status of hearings before you appear at the Maryland Insurance Administration, as circumstances may warrant further announcements.

The hearings office continues to process correspondence or filings received through regular mail or by e-mail at appealsclerkcontacts.mia@maryland.gov related to any hearing.

If you have any questions or concerns about a hearing, please contact the hearings and appeals clerk at 410-468-2018 or submit your inquiry by email at appealsclerkcontacts.mia@maryland.gov.
