Bulletin 15-10

Date: May 5, 2015

To: All Property and Casualty Insurers, the Maryland Automobile Insurance Fund (MAIF), and the Joint Insurance Association (JIA)

Re: COMAR 31.01.02 Emergency Regulation on Claims Information for the Baltimore City Civil Unrest

This bulletin hereby directs the State's authorized property and casualty insurers, MAIF, and JIA to provide the data set forth in COMAR 31.01.02.07(3).

The data shall be submitted for each individual insurance company, by line of business, for the City of Baltimore using the link to the Severe Event Data Collector below:

https://www.mdinsurance.state.md.us/stormTracker/jsp/storm_login.jsp

Filers may access the electronic form using any computer that connects to the Internet after entering their assigned user IDs and passwords. We will send each company an email with the user ID and password.

If, after submitting your data, the filer realizes that information provided was incomplete or incorrect, the company must contact the MIA via email at pcinform.mia@maryland.gov.

Submission Deadlines are as follows:

Data as of May 27, 2015 due June 10, 2015

Data as of June 27, 2015 due July 10, 2015

Data as of July 27, 2015 due August 10, 2015

If the company or association is unable to provide any or all the information, it must submit a detailed explanation as to why it is unable to provide this information and state what information it can provide.

Supplied data is confidential commercial data protected under State Government Article, §10-617(d), Annotated Code of Maryland, except when aggregated with data from all other insurers in a manner that does not permit any individual company information to be identified.

If you have any questions regarding this Bulletin, please contact Joy Hatchette, Associate Commissioner, Consumer Education and Advocacy, by telephone at 410-468-2029 or by email at joy.hatchette@maryland.gov.
