Bulletin 15-13

Date: May 6, 2015

To: All Authorized Property and Casualty Insurers

Re: COMAR 31.08.12 Temporary Moratoriums and Weather Events

On April 27, 2015, Governor Larry Hogan issued Executive Order 01.01.2015.14 declaring a State of Emergency for the City of Baltimore. Also on that date, Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake instituted a city-wide curfew for the City of Baltimore during the hours of 10:00 P.M. and 5:00 A.M. that became effective April 28, 2015 at 10:00 P.M.

This Bulletin is to remind insurers that have implemented temporary moratoriums in accordance with COMAR 31.08.12 based on the declaration of the State of Emergency and/or the imposition of the special curfew that, pursuant to COMAR 31.08.12.05D and COMAR 31.08.12.05F, the moratorium must end at the expiration of the State of Emergency and the special curfew. Earlier today, Governor Hogan lifted the State of Emergency for the City of Baltimore and on May 3, 2015, Mayor Rawlings-Blake lifted the curfew.

Accordingly, and pursuant to COMAR 31.01.02.05E, the Commissioner hereby directs all insurers doing business in the State to lift any temporary moratoriums imposed as a result of the State of Emergency effective immediately. Additionally, all insurers doing business in the State are directed to lift any temporary moratoriums imposed as a result of the special curfew, effective May 3, 2015 at 7:39 A.M.
